You put a vision in me
A passion so strong that it beckons me still
Calling me desperately
Stay

Oh, what do I know
Rendering beauty from what I destroyed
Characteristically so
Poignantly, vitally buried alive
All that remains
From off in another direction
Calling me still
Stay

Stay
Where you are
Time will pass as you fall away
It's a shame
To come so far
Just to watch it all fade away
If you wanna stay
Where you are
Time will pass as you fall away
It's a shame
To come so far
Just to watch it all slip away
As you fade away

Oh, what do I know
Rendering beauty from what I disposed
Characteristically so
Poignantly, vitally buried alive
All that remains
Off in another direction
It's calling me still
Stay
