Take it all
Take it all away to watch me fall
Take me in
Show me what it's like to be alive
Truly alive

Im holding fast to what I know
Cos I found it
Surrounded

Take it all
Take it all for what you think its worth
Find your life
Find it in your heart to let this go
To come back home

And all we ever wanted was the truth
I'll count the rest as loss
Count it all as loss
I'm gonna figure out what's right
And I'll count the rest as lost
Count the rest as if it's lost for good

I'm holding fast to what I know
Cos I found it
Surrounded
I found it
Surrounded
Surrounded

You left the back door open
Theres an answer
One which have opened
Theres a reason
Left the back door open
Theres an answer
One which we can't open
