i love tube disasters
i wanna marry a tube disaster
i want another one like the last one cause i live for tube disasters yeah build up some speed don't shut your eyes make sure that everyone in the train dies you don't get no prize no time to say goodbyes just smile everyone, you'll be on t.v. tonight that's right

i love tube disasters
cause i live for tube disasters yeah

go through a wall forget about the brakes it's so much easier than the pills you can take i go through moorgate and i'm wide awake but no bloody driver's gone and made a mistake, that's yet
is it me that needs a home?
not likely, vicarious of living rids your boredom

i love tube disasters
cause i live for tube disasters yeah
