Is it suicide or illusion
Guess I kiss and tell, kiss and tell
If you do decide at your leisure
They can weave their spell, weave their spell
All of the angels - calling us home
We leave tomorrow
We leave everything we own
And I will be sad as I'm leaving
And I say take my hand, take my hand
We won't criticize others leaving
We will understand, understand - yeah
All of the angels - calling us home
We leave tomorrow
We leave everything we own - yeah, yeah, yeah
All of the angels
Calling us home
We leave tomorrow
We leave everything we own, everything we own, everything we own
Say goodbye to the world and it's false conclusions
? is a war
And one more illusion
Come alive with the songs
????
Leave the keys in the car
We won't go very far
If you realize they are with you
And they're here today, here today
With the secret prize they will give you
It will be ok, be ok - yeah

(continue with chorus)
