[illegible]

Yea summer days that blind your face
Will soon be dead and gone
Better get it on
Tuned to a day the baby against the world, yea

You took the best seat will you risk it
When the chips were down
Better make it long
Schrodinger's cat is dead to the world

You say your cat sees in the dark
You criticize the play and isolate the box
I always knew you were a scientist at heart

Just as the breeze with speed and build
You sat upon the fence
Clucking like a chicken making perfect sense

Pass that gun, hand me that knife
Man's little monster has been brought back to life

You say your cat sees in the dark
You criticize the flow and isolate the box
I always knew you were a scientist at heart
I always knew you were

Last train to Norwich, last train to Norwich
Last train to Norwich, last train to Norwich

Last train to Norwich
Last train to Norwich
Last train to Norwich
