Bathe in another man's grave
In time we'll follow
Save all your thoughts for these days
Don't steal, just borrow

Well, a high wire is a dangerous game
But a hard act to follow
If I fly high like a moth to a flame
Would your eyes be the size of sorrow?

Pain, I can understand pain
Sometimes you just swallow
Say we can make it okay
Don't steal, just borrow

Well, the high wire is a dangerous game
But a hard act to follow
If I fly high like a moth to a flame
Would your eyes be the size of sorrow?

Well, the high wire is a dangerous game
But a hard act to follow
If I fly high like a moth to a flame
Would your eyes be the size of sorrow?

High wire is a dangerous game
But a hard act to follow
If I fly high like a moth to a flame
Would your eyes be the size of sorrow?

High wire, high wire, high wire
Would your eyes be the size of sorrow?
High wire, high wire, high wire
