Turn the lights down low
I, I turn the lights down I got a movie we can watch until you fall asleep on my chest
So tell me right now, oh I, tell me right now Is there any place that you'd rather be other than here?
Let's forget the rest
And I swear, I swear when I first saw you and talked to you You'd give me purpose with every single word you'd say
You took my breath away

I am so high
I am never coming down
Cause you're mine and you've decided to stay,
decided to stay around
And as time is taken away, you stay the same, you stay
the same
You stay here with me, you stay here, you stay here with me

And our futures are splitting us apart as we speak We'll get to that when it comes around None of that really matters now Cause you're here with me So tell me you love me cause it makes me feel alive for the first time
I love you too

I am so high
I am never coming down
Cause you're mine and you've decided to stay,
decided to stay around
And as time is taken away, you stay the same, you stay
the same
You stay here with me, you stay here, you stay here

I am so high
I am never coming down
Cause you're mine and you've decided to stay,

decided to stay around
And as time is taken away, you stay the same, you stay
the same
You stay here with me, you stay here

Tell me how long we have up here away from everything we fear
Cause I don't wanna come back down tonight
I swear I will fight until we're the last to stand Until it's you left holding my hand
And our love, our love will burn so bright

I am so high
Cause you're mine and you've decided to stay,
the same

I am so high
Cause you're mine and you've decided to stay,
the same
You stay here with me
