"Double-edge sword"

One more chance to open my mouth
Not this time
One more chance to let it all out
Not this time

If we think before we speak
We prevent casualties

Chorus:
Stop this time and unwind
'Cause in a moment you'll be changing your mind
Not this time, I decline
After I've spoken I can not rewind

My tongue is a double-edged sword
Breeding guilt
Waits outside the victims door
To strike and kill

If we think before we speak
We prevent casualties
