"For today"

You ask me what I'd do
If misfortune ran me through
So fierce I could not be restored

Maybe the economy
Will die or possibly
We will experience global war

Chorus:
Time will tell what will happen here
Time will tell but for now it's so unclear
I won't be held back by the future
I will look out for today

I am a fool to think
That my ship can not sink
And meet it's end under the sea

But there's a problem here
I'm paralyzed with fear
And what's ahead is killing me

I choose to trust
In what I know
And what I know
Is that God is Good
