Hey ive been wondering his name
and if you do those things the same.
It hurts to know that you have drown me out (drown me out).
And all I ask is that you show a little sympathy,
it hurts my heart to know that you can never look at me.
I feel im falling out.

And it's just my understading that you like awake at night and your lying in his arms, while im still lost in the fight.

And it's just my understanding that this time it is the truth,
that the words you used are true,
i feel im falling out.

It's obvious that you've moved on
and was i really all that wrong.
It hurts to know that you have drown me out (drown me
out).
And ill i ask is that you show a little sympathy,
it hurts my heart to know that you can never look at me.
I feel im falling out.
