"Sleep, Sleep"

I think about my life.
I think about what it's like to be stuck in this shallow dream, where I'm your favorite, favorite scene.
And it's cut at the heart.
We're just a shot in the dark.

Sleep, sleep, let this be a dream.
Keep it unseen.
Maybe, I'll mislead and dream away.

I figured out what it's like.
I figured out that I like where I'm your favorite scene,
the one where it's played on the big screen.
And it's cut at the heart.
We're just a shot in the dark.

Sleep, sleep, let this be a dream.
Keep it unseen.
Maybe, I'll mislead and dream away.

You said I was a mistake.
I tell you to quit faking when your heart feels true.
So distraught, you don't know what to do.
I've got to think of the words to say.
If you give me just another day, we'll make it through,
and I'll prove my love for you.

Sleep, sleep, let this be a dream.
Keep it unseen.
Maybe, I'll mislead and dream away.

Maybe, I'll mislead.
Maybe, I'll just dream away(x2)
