SPIN THAT WHEEL

Written by Ya Kid K, and El Sati

Performed by Hi Tek 3 featuring Ya Kid K

(Jam with this)

Come on, come on, come on

(Get up and party)

(I'm here to play you the music)

Come on

(Bring that beat back)

Come on

Dope, def, any term is alright when your D.J. plays the K.

You will listen to what the Kid has to say

'Cause you know it's too damn straight, can't wait

Gotta get on down before it's too late, and even if so it would be

My friend, just tell 'em to lay it again

See once it starts to beat your eardrum, it goes way up to your head

Bounces down your belly and back, if you hunger you'll be fed

It's all up to the individual, this reaction is typical

Somehow you get to catch up with that beat

Snap them fingers, stomp your feet

For real legit, you feel it

I'm talking 'bout the real deal

I'm-a make ya feel

Yo D.J., spin that wheel

Spin that wheel, spin that wheel

I'm-a make ya feel

Yo D.J. (Get up and party)

(I'm here to play you the music)

Come on

(Bring that beat back)

Hi Tek 3 knows what's up

They're hippin' the house so turn it up, come on

All you long for rapped up in one pack, when it stops you're gonna put it back
On this trip I'm your hostess providin' anything you request
Startin' from your hair to your toenails, I know how to treat a guest
Take it from me, it's a must, come to the kid so I can bust this
Like it should be done, Ya Kid K. is the one

Turn it up, let it spin
Turn it over, let it spin
Turn it up, let it spin
Turn it over, let it spin

For real legit, you feel it
I'm talking 'bout the real deal
I'm-a make ya feel
Yo D.J., spin that wheel
Spin that wheel
I'm-a make ya feel
Yo D.J. (Get up and party)

(I'm here to play you the music)
Come on, come on
(Bring that beat back)

Turn it up, let it spin
Turn it over, let it spin, yo
Turn it up, let it spin
Turn it over, let it spin

For real legit, you feel it
I'm talking 'bout the real deal
I'm-a make ya feel

Hype, word, anyway is okay when the record starts to play
Legit, you feel it, yo D.J., spin that wheel
Spin that wheel
I'm-a make you feel
Yo D.J. (Get up and party)

(I'm here to play you the music)
Come on
(Bring that beat back)...
