The feeling you forget is one shot, two shots, we'll make more sense I knew that you'd be back to start it up, let's start again

You never wanna get away from what you've done You never wanna stop the things that I've become I know the reason. and theres just no reason and all this time that I could waste all the time that I could stay all the time I would let you down

And all this time that I can't be the one thing that you don't know, baby, I know the reason you've been down, and theres just no reason

You'll never take this step to make a mence that we can lead you're startin over to remember who you were, wasting everything for what your livin for,
I know the reason, and theres just no reason and all this time that I can't wait,

all the time that I could stay,
all the time I would let you down
And all this time that I can't be
the one thing that you don't know, baby,
I know the reason you've been down, and theres just no
reason

aww you, do do do do do do, aww you, oooh, aww you, do do do do do do

and all this time that I could waste,
all the time that I could stay,
all the time I would let you down
And all this time that I can't be
the one thing that you don't know, baby,
reason
