Start your engine, world knows you're mine.
Set free your horses, show me what you have.

I know you won't let me down.
With you the roads are always open.

I will tune you up, make you so quick.
I will fill your need, make me blind by your speed.

The sun will never set on us.
The others will never catch us.

Keep the sun in the horizon.
It has never been so bright.
Keep the direction to my heaven.

It has never felt so right.

Mustang - I know you won't let me down.
Mustang - With you the roads are always open.
Mustang - The sun will never set on us.
Mustang - The others will never catch us
