[Lead: Holm]

Reborn but dead and violent
You'll enslave humanity
Rise, reborn in flesh
To become the dreams of eternity

Determined to see their fall
See them bathe in flames
Advanced to a higher priest
Benumb ice floats in veins

Souls of thousand dead warriors
A cost of betrayal
Wiped out and threatened of existence
Contradictions within our beliefs
Disaster is not inevitable
Starting fires and reeking disease
Deception makes us crawl, makes us bleed
Bound to collapse, fall on our knees

Haunting, torment of torture
You will do as I say
Intervene the commands and obey
Frantic I will intersect your soul

I'm profane, a delusive design
Pleasure of slavery, existent, divine
Drastic measure for those that will fail
Chaos will denote my desire

[Lead: Persson]

Ill repute is my name
Vile, torment and hatred
Blood-thirst seer tremor
Heaven or hell it shall be
Trenchant roar of laughter
Sins existence of time
Water turns to blood
Destruction of paradise

He's to blame I'm your god
Behold my kingdom as I rise

You have seen what I've become
I'm the serpent of lies
Attack in darkest of night
Creatures of the hatred

Respected of those that obey
I'm blessed with the flesh
I'm the future breed I will clone
I have become seer's hatred

Souls of thousand dead warriors
A cost of betrayal
Wiped out and threatened of existence
Contradictions within our beliefs
Disaster is not inevitable
Starting fires and reeking disease
Deception makes us crawl, makes us bleed
Bound to collapse, fall on our knees
