"Little Dawn"

Well, little Dawn walks on and she thinks she don't belong
Under starry heights
So take a sigh as long as the war's been going on
In your heart tonight

But if you want to make that light
Go on and swim across the ocean
And if you want to make it right
Go on and put your plan in motion

The gap is only as wide as the hollow of the sky
Between you, my dear
And the truth absolute and it no more profound to it
Than that you are here

And if you wanna keep it bright
Well, you might have to burn the candle
And if you wanna keep it tight
Well, you might have to learn to handle

But on the day's and night's, it's hard to breathe
And you can't believe, you still walk the streets
Stretch out your weary hand to me, it's alright
And if you're not content to just believe
And if you don't consent to just let it be
Stretch out your legs and dance with me all night

Chariot of the night
Tonight

And on the day's and night's, it's hard to breathe
And you can't believe, you still walk the streets
Stretch out your weary hand to me, it's alright
And if you're not content to just believe
And if you don't consent to just let it be
Stretch out your legs and dance with me all night

It's alright, it's alright
It's alright, it's alright
It's alright, it's alright
