"A Place In My Heart"

Now the time has come for us to say goodbye
I never thought this day would come so soon
It's strange but after all these years I couldn't cry
Even if my heart and soul are like a mere ruin

I have to breathe and clear up my mind
I want to find a new moment to seize

I'd like to forget all our shared memories
Just to know how it feels not to carry worries
I'd like to restart a brand new life
To remove from my heart this bleeding knife
But I have to admit you will always have a place in my heart

I try to understand where we went so wrong
It seems there is no real answer to that question
All I can do now is to write and sing this song
It's too late to forgive and find a solution

Now that I'm free, I'm not gonna waste time
There's no reason or rhyme not to break these ties that bind me

I'd like to forget all our shared memories
Just to know how it feels not to carry worries
I'd like to restart a brand new life
To remove from my heart this bleeding knife
But I have to admit you will always have a place in my heart

Goodbye to the big love
Goodbye to our dreams
Farewell my darling
Adieu mon amour

I'd like to forget all our shared memories
Just to know how it feels not to carry worries
I'd like to restart a brand new life
To remove from my heart this bleeding knife

But I have to admit you will always have a place in my heart
