It began in a 4H pavilion in southern Wisconsin
The warmth of the dairy sun, and the smell of the dairy air
Then I caught the eye of a sweet little rodeo princess
When I took her hand, I knew it was County Fair Love

I said "I've got it bad for you, you know I do Everytime our eyes meet my heart takes a ride on the Tilt-A-Whirl
It's not the corndogs I ate that gave me this funny feeling
It's far more serious than that--this County Fair Love"

The heat of the moment was almost overpowering
The sweat of the Clydesdales and the roar of the crowd
The grandstand was full of admirers as I airbrushed your name 'cross my chest
There's nothing quite so romantic as County Fair Love

And I've got it bad for you, you know I do Everytime our eyes meet my heart takes a ride on the
Tilt-A-Whirl
It's not the corndogs I ate, for three meals a day,
That gave me this funny feeling
It's far more serious than that--it's County Fair Love

- monologue -

Now the sun's going down and the cheese curds are coming back up
But I won't be lonely now that you're gone
'Cause I have your likeness carved from twelve pounds of butter
(That's a lot of butter)
There's nothing so poignant and tragic as County Fair
Love

'Cause I've got it bad for you, you know I do Everytime our eyes meet my heart takes a ride on the
Tilt-A-Whirl
It's not the corndogs I ate for three meals a day, three days in a row,

That gave me this funny feeling
It's far more serious than that--it's County Fair Love
