ENGLISH

i know you are living in me and in my soul you are making me crazy and ur love is having me like a prisoner i cant deny this although our story was hard and we had many difficulties and although you are tough and forgetting me but i cant forget you or love anyone else but you..i cant say ahhh to anyone but you im addicted to ur love its in my blood u made me forget what is forgetting i know the truth which is i can die or get crazy but i cant stop loving you it was the fate that wanted us to meet each other i didnt want to sleep so that i dont see u in my dreams after u i changed my life and i tried to forget the places where we went and the words that we said but that was over my control because u are living in me...have mercy on my heart and go back to be the old lover that i want
