"Fall Anyway"

Something special, something strange
When you look at me that way
I can feel it
Blood is rushing through my veins,
I just don't know how to say
What I'm feeling

You take me high, you take me low
So I fall a little more
And I let myself fall, anyway
Will you go? Will you go?
When your heart scares you so
And just let yourself fall, anyway

When we hide where we sleep
Where our dreams become our dreams
I can feel it
Could you tell me anything,
Could you teach me how to speak
What I'm feeling

You take me high, you take me low
So I fall a little more
And I let myself fall, anyway
Will you go? Will you go?
When your heart scares you so?
And just let yourself fall, anyway...
