Took her loving arms to hold me
How could I ever let go of her
I said it's love
She said I'm crazy
She was right

Let's Go!

I know you're lost
And I'm still standing at all the exits
I was finding my way as well
You came at the right time

Mystical science proving anything
I could see in the daylight
Nothing but lies when you look at it
How could my heart have been so blind

You had something
But it ain't what I thought
You sold and I bought
You kept me in the dark
And I gave you everything
and you stole my heart
You stole my heart

Her name I loved as a child
Thought it sounded oh so pretty
And her eyes reflecting desires
Can't mess up my own design
The sweet was all in my mind
Wish I was, I was shining bright
Until I opened my mind
I could not believe my eye

Mystical science proving anything
Nothing but lies when you look at it
How could my heart have been so blind

You had something

But it ain't what I thought
You sold and I bought
You kept me in the dark
And I gave you everything
and you stole my heart
You stole my heart

Took her loving arms to hold me
How could I ever let go of her
I said it's love
She said I'm crazy
She was right

You had something
But it ain't what I thought
You sold and I bought
You stole my heart
You stole my heart
You stole my heart
