Luna says:Serena Beleive in yourself,Everyone is counting on you.

Serena replys:(music starts) I hear you luna, and I am not afraid any more Evil Queen says: You should be

Here I'm standing in the night
Serena:Fight this evil
My Crescent Wand the only light
Alone against my darkest fear
But I sense my friends are near I'll draw from each the power I need Evil queen we will defeat

chorus

Give me the strength to carry on
With all our love we can't go wrong
Only together we face the fight Nothing can stand against our might

chorus

With all our strength the battle's won
With all our love we can't go wrong
We have the strength to carry on
