A little girl with very long plaits about fourteen years old and rather pretty But if she fell on her little stuss you can be sure that she cried

But then one day she meets the mysterious and the ice cold night of univers She becomes a fighter, yes a heroine And as for a friend she gets a cat

A destiny that she really can't understand and she doesn't know how it will end

A little girl with very long plaits
about fourteen years old and rather pretty
Who now gets to fight the lackeys of evil How will it end? How will it end?
It's only the stars who knows How it will end, how it will end
