The story now I've been told
Many times before
And I still can't get my head around it, oh
So can't you tell me now
Where it all began
Cause I see love but I don't know where it's coming from
Now you can't sleep
Without the things you need

Well I believe that I can save the world
The world is in our hands now, give it all to me
Well I believe that I can save the world
All things that are going wrong now, so please make me believe
That I can save the world
I can save the world

If every time you look around, things will be coming down
Would you still think you're living free?
Stop of what you're thinking of
I think of when it would be you or me
Like we'd be screaming "Save me, save me"
Now set them free
And show the love they need

Well I believe that I can save the world
The world is in our hands now, give it all to me
Well I believe that I can save the world
All things that are going wrong now, so please make
me believe
That I can save the world
Save the world

What if this goes wrong
Or if it not turns out the way you want
But I believe in me, and I believe in you
So I think that we can do this as long as you Give me, everything I need

Well I believe that I can save the world
The world is in our hands now, give it all to me
Well I believe that I can save the world
All things that are going wrong now, so please make
me believe

Well I believe that I can save the world
The world is in our hands now, give it all to me
Well I believe that I can save the world
All things that are going wrong now, so please make
me believe
That I can save the world
Save the world
Save the world
Save the world
