

Frank McCaffrey

"Coastline Of Mayo"

Visit "Coastline Of Mayo" on MotoLyrics.com

In my search for fame and fortune
I've travelled many a mile
To be on the blue horizon that Keeps calling all the while
I have seen all kinds of grandeur
But I'm longing still, I know,
For the little, friendly places on
The coastline of Mayo.

[Chorus]
Belmullet and Broadhaven
Achill Island o'er the wave
Croagh Patrick's holy mountain
By the waters of Clew bay
Clare Island, home of Graanurewale
Old Newport well I know
All the friendly little places on
The coastline of Mayo.

How ever far you travel
There's one place best of all
To be again in Westport
Is the wish I oft recall
If that wish cannot be given
May God grant me as I go
One last look from Heaven's casement on
The coastline of Mayo

Visit Frank McCaffrey page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.