(Music : Rutan/Azagthoth/Lyrics : Vincent)
Darkness - swallowing all in it's path
The blind leading the blind and the ?flock? is ever confused
Who has the ift of healthy sight and mind ?
Who can withstand while the others are blown away ?
Eyes to see ... what the others see not
Ears to hear ... the voice of the elders guides
Eyes to see ... and the blind; they wither away
You fools ! These eyes are never for you
Darkness - corrupting all in it's path
Greed leading the man to blindness, suffering
And ever foretold ... the meek shall have this earth
Alas without sight they will only be left with demise
Worls aparts are they and I
My world remains in sight
Their lives - despair
The R?I?s? and ?They?s? cannot compare
