There you sit with the TV on
It could be work but it looks like fun
You must be happy that I came home now
Now you've been practicing your furrowed brow

Everybody gets along with everyone
It's so easy
Everybody gets along with everyone

The debonair in the way you dress
Is taken absolutely from the best
Brando and Monty had some kind of style
And you've been working on your west coast smile

Everybody gets along with everyone
It's so easy
Everybody gets along with everyone

Now you're out there in the big spotlight
But was there something you forgot to hide?
Stranded naked in the cruelest wind
Armed with nothing but your boyish grin

Everybody gets along with everyone
It's so easy
Everybody gets along with everyone
It's so easy
