You spend a lot of time
convincing people that you're happy inside,
But I see through
Yeah, I see through the lies
You're wearing your disguise
And everyone's just doing what you do

Picutre perfect faces,
Convincingly done,
They're out to catch a yellow bellied, red blooded, lady
with a shotgun,
Point it at your followers and run
Well you got it all wrong!

Take a bow
They're watching you
Why and how
I'll never know
You
(Can't have it)
Oooh...
(Can't have it)
Oooh...
Oooh...

Strike a pose and make it pretty,
slide the note under the door
Just sit back, enjoy the view
He'll drag you to the ground
When nobody's around
And take a sign to turn you black and blue

Picutre perfect faces,
Convincingly done,
They're out to catch a yellow bellied, red blooded, lady
with a shotgun,
Point it at your followers and run
Well you got it all wrong!

Take a bow
They're watching you

Why and how
I'll never know
You
(Can't have it)
Ooooh...
(Can't have it)
Oooh...
Oooh...

Red blooded lady with a shotgun!

Take a bow
They're watching you
Why and how
I'll never know
You
(Can't have it)
Ooooh...
(Can't have it)
Oooh...
Oooh...

Take a bow

Take a bow

Take a bow

A bow
