"3 Skinny Girls"

Three skinny girls were there when I woke up They brought me brown toast and tea, said they knew all about me
All flashlight pearls and covered in make up They shaved my eyelids so small and let me dance with them all My cheap hotel was makin' me lonely I drank till past three o'clock I couldnt think straight or talk Three skinny girls was all that I wished for To rub my belly and head and come and sleep in my bed

They made me breakfast Cornflakes and beer
They blew my noses
And they told me

I'm just a boy with an average kinda face thick brown curls and I live in a smelly place I was alone in my wasted head now there's three skinny girls lyin in my bed, oh yeah

Well now my girl lets talk about you now
You look so undignified like your pet angel just died Three skinny girls left me on sunday Just me and my lonely room left me some sweet macaroon
