

Fray, The "City Hall"

The city hall in my mind, met last night.
Rumors of reelection started to fly.

It's my funeral today, my funeral today.
I laid it down underneath the sound.

It's my principle concern, my principle concern is what you say.
But I wanted it this way,
Cause I'm throwin' down without a fight.

You're more than welcome to look around,
Consult your checklist go underground.
I'll claim a stake here inside the frame,
But I'm going under another way.

I won't return after today,
So I'm at liberty to say what's on my mind.
And it's some I like.

You can't watch me, you can't make me like before,
When I was yours, when all I wanted was the door.
So I'm throwin' down without a fight.

You're more than welcome to look around,
Consult your checklist go underground.
I'll claim a stake here inside the frame,
But I'm going under another way.

Decision on the dock head.
Make up my mind and if you get consensus,
Drop me a line.

The city hall in my mind, they got together last night.
Rumors of reelection started to fly.
