Our evils now are ending
We were actors, we were spirit
Melted into air
Now I left my spell.
Forgiveness I embrace
Heaven send hell away
All my life as a dream with open minds I'll restart.
I was blind and deaf until the day
Of wave became.
I have faith in evil, in his balance of the blame
All this world around did I created on my own
And now it's time to free this island and be gone
All my life, like ashes in my hand
Now forgive me prosper 'till the end
The magic of storms I'll feel in my heart
Like a blames
Time, now it's time
Feels like ashes
All my life
How the stars
I was blind and deaf until the day
Of wave became
I have faith in evil, in his balance of the blame
All this world around did I created on my own
Now it's time to free this island and be gone.
Lay a mercy on my enemy
I'll forgive them even across the sea
We are such a stuff, as dreams are made on
Set me free.
I'll carry on, carry on
Tell me, is my start?
We are such a stuff, as dreams are made on
And I'm gone
