War kings inside your brain
You gotta find alone
Falling back
Your sanity has gone

Why do you everything that you can?
Run away from pain
Sorry, man
Your tries were all in vain

Wondering 'round
Like a phantom in the dark
And you're waiting for the night to come

Lunacy attacks
And you strumble to hit back
You'll be waiting for the morning sun

I'm the voice commanding you
Divided we're nothing
United we're breaking the rules
I'm the voice commanding you
Someday the madness will lose control
Over you

Dream it all
You can fly in a never-ending story
Where the sun will shine
Every passing day

Free your mind
Let your spirit go free to fly high
Let the menace be gone
Fly away

Coming in it all
The confusions in your mind
Going crazy as the night moves on

Playing with your head
Now you're wishing to be dead
And you're praying for the dawn to come

I'm the voice commanding you
Divided we're nothing
United we're breaking the rules
I'm the voice commanding you
Don't let the madness assume control
Over you
Over you
Over you

[Coro:
I'll be there reminding how you are
(I'll be there reminding how you are)
((I've got a reminding story of life))
You look inside, a man new
Take a chance, that's never late]

I'm the voice commanding you
(Laying down the law)
United we're breaking the rules
Were breaking the rules
I'm the voice commanding you
Can make me go away
Over you

I will never surrender!

I'm commanding you
Laying down the law
Over you
For the light
And you can't hide
The voice commanding you
