"Crossing"

Find me an ocean
Lazy morning surprise
Take me to Heaven
On the coat tails of rhyme
Capturing freedom
The kind that's not part of soul
Sing with the angels
Honey dripping rivers of gold
Through canyons my mind unfolds
Lay me down easy
Over the fold
Banks of the river
I'm finally home
Won't you lead me to the crossing?
Wake me from slumber
My eyes they long to see
Cascading water
From cold eternal streams
Set my soul, spirit free
Lay me down easy
Over the fold

Banks of the river

Finally home

Won't you lead me to the crossing?

Cut this heart open

Pour out all to my name

Way of the love

It's all I have left to give

Nothing more left to gain

Lay me down easy

Over the fold

Banks of the river

Finally home

Won't you lead me to the crossing?

Won't you lead me to the crossing?

Cut this heart open

Finally home

Crossing

Finally home now
