

Teen Idols "Nothing To Prove"

I think it's kind of funny how your mind starts running when you hear of a chance to take advantage of a situation without taking a glance I know it's exciting when there's someone new to impress just be careful or you're gonna find yourself in a mess yesterday it seemed okay having fun just to sing and play but people always change when they wanna play the game but there's something they've gotta prove climbing up the ladder and it really doesn't matter if their friends are getting abused time and again you forgot your friends who never left your side every now and then you wanna let 'em back in even though you lied I know it's inviting purely bad timing for them to forgive now you've made your bed knowing what you've said and how can you even live you've got nothing to prove you've got nothing to lose except yourself
