

Free Movement

"I've Found Someone Of My Own"

Visit "I've Found Someone Of My Own" on MotoLyrics.com

I got up this morning
While I was having my coffee
My woman came in, sat down by my side
With tears in her eyes
She said, "I've a confession to make."
I said, "Woman, speak what's on your mind."

She said, "I've found somebody new
To take your place."
I said, "Don't feel so all alone,
I've found someone of my own."

"All those lonely nights
You left me all alone
My true love would call
And talk to me on the phone."

I said, "Woman, if that's the way it's gotta be
Then darlin, don't you worry about me".

She said, "I've found somebody new
To take your place."
I said, "Don't feel so all alone,
I've found someone of my own."

I got up from the table
Reached down and wiped the tears
From her face.
I put out my cigarette,
Turned and walked away.

She said, "I've found somebody new
To take your place."
I said, "Don't feel so all alone,
I've found someone of my own."

Visit Free Movement page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.