Who, yeah yeah yeah uh huh
Who saw you stumble baby? Who let you fall?
Who gave you something out of nothin' at all?
Who's the one for you to turn to when you're feeling low?
Who's always been there for you, darlin' you know

Who's gonna turn your back on, all that we had had?
And who had the good times, should out-weigh the bad
Who took the vow that they'll be there till death do us part?
Who's is slowly dyin' cause' you're breakin' my heart,
you know

I gave my love and it was from my heart
I can't figure out just why you tore it apart
Why does it have to be this way? I can't figure it out baby
I wanna know who's gonna love you like I do
And who's gonna be there holding you now, oh

Who can I turn to when I feel so blue?
Who can I run to? There's no me without you Who's gonna be by your side? Since you walked right out my life
Can't sleep at night, keep toss and turnin'
And one, one can you tell me who?

I gave my love and it was from my heart
I can't figure out just why you tore it apart
Why does it have to be this way? I can't figure it out baby, oh no
I wanna know who's gonna love you like I do
And who's gonna be there holding you now, oh

I guess I knew that you were satisfied
I tried to push those thoughts right out of my mind
I guess this happens, when you don't deal with the pain
But if you come on back, this way I'll give ya my everything again

I gave my love and it was from my heart

I can't figure out just why you tore it apart
Why does it have to be this way? I can't figure it out
baby, oh no
I wanna know who's gonna love you like I do
And who's gonna be there holding you now

I gave my love and it was from my heart
I can't figure out just why you tore it apart
Why does it have to be this way? I can't figure it out
baby
I wanna know who's gonna love you like I do
And who's gonna be there holding you now

I gave my love and it was from my heart
I can't figure out just why you tore it apart
Why does it have to be this way? I can't figure it out
baby
I wanna know who's gonna love you like I do
And who's gonna be there holding you now
