Two spirits passing through time,
How did yours connect with mine?
Just like the somber seems so sweet and light,
You, love is lifting me, that's why,
I believe your hands are healing,
For this is the perfect feeling

Follow your rainbow to the eastern star,
Sing gentle, run while you are,
Move, sacred river, flow with ages,
You, as on driven snow, I pray,
That our hearts will be believing,
That this is the perfect feeling,

Come, join me now in harmony,
By the light of Heaven's ecstasy,
I know you and I feel you floating inside of me,
Loving is sweet, so sweet, so sweet, so sweet,

Time waits for no one, I'm sure,
That I've been your lover before,
Light me a candle and I'll do the same,
And, I'll love you wild and unrestrained,

Hoping that our hearts' revealing,
In light of the perfect feeling,

Come inside me,
I've been waiting for you all my life,
Don't you know?
Here in my dreams,
I've been you and you have been me,
Hear me, hear me now,

Come inside me,
I've been waiting for you all my life,
Hear me, hear me now,
This is the perfect feeling,
My love cannot hide,
