Oh yeah,
Pretty baby,
Give me one more chance, baby,
If I ever broke your heart,
That's right,
It will be the last time we ever break baby,
Trust me.
Ha ha

It's you that selected, ejected,
Down now,
How did love we had could ever just go night, (that's right)
But now that I've been thinking I can see how much I hurt you, (c'mon)
Let me take you over 'cause this love it won't desert you, (yeah baby)
I'm the one, who couldn't handle love back then, (right)
Didn't see you were a gentle, the way you shine trough other men, (that's right)
Did we realize I get higher tax?
Every time I'm looking in eyes,
Don't you see my disguise, baby?

Sometimes, (what, yeah, that's right),
A heart is true and it's says It's sorry, (alright)
Sometimes (sometimes, what)
You can't let the past predict tomorrow,
Sometimes (sometimes)
The one you love deserves a second chance, (one more time now, one more chance now)
A broken heart's no place to hide.

Sometimes sometimes
Sometimes sometimes

I laugh for,
I cry for,
You know that I die for,
To make you give your love to me,
Swim to the next shore,

Forgive me that I ran away,
Homebred to make you stay,
This time there's no display,
I show my love with no delay,
Only you can me glow,
It's the way you do me slow,
Kiss my lips and make me know,
You the man, I know for sure,
Wish that I could press rewind,
Constantly you're on my mind,
This love's hard to find,
Stay till the end of all times.

Sometimes, (sometimes),
A heart is true and it's says It's sorry, (oh yeah)
Sometimes (aah c'mon now)
You can't let the past predict tomorrow,
Sometimes (you should know, you should know)
The one you love deserves a second chance,
(goodbye) (yeah yeah)
A broken heart's no place to hide (sometimes)

Sometimes, (yeah baby baby baby),
A heart is true and it's says It's sorry, (I'll make you know how much I need you next to me)
Sometimes
You can't let the past predict tomorrow, (right here, yeah baby)
Sometimes (oh baby)
The one you love deserves a second chance, (you should know my love)
A broken heart's no place to hide.

You won't have to fear,
When you want it I'll be near,
Come lent me your ear,
Let me dry away your tears,
You're my sun when it rain's my dear,
My mind's set up, it's clear,
Don't you see it's true with you baby?
Yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah

Sometimes (say what, ah ha)

The one you love deserves a second chance, (that's right) (goodbye) (that's right)
A broken heart's no place to hide.

Uh sometimes
Uh sometimes my baby, oh yeah ih yeah
Uh sometimes
Uh sometimes my baby, baby
Uh sometimes,
Won't you come back to me?
Someday you will see (uh sometimes)
I'm so sorry my baby,
Come back to your love (uh sometimes)
My baby

Sometimes,
A heart is true and it's says It's sorry, (uh yeah uh yeah)
Sometimes (uh yeah uh yeah heyyy)
You can't let the past predict tomorrow, (can't let the past predict tomorrow)
Sometimes
The one you love deserves a second chance, (oh no no, gotta belive me my baby)
A broken heart's no place to hide (uh sometimes)

Sometimes,
A heart is true and it's says It's sorry, (I'm sorry baby)
Sometimes
You can't let the past predict tomorrow, (can't let the past predict tomorrow baby)
Sometimes (give just one more chance)
