I'm feeling summer coming in and coming on again
Like waxing needles pushing through my tired frozen skin
If I go walking then I know you wanna let me in, please Plastic bus stop, yeah, I thought I saw you waiting there
Or on the corner by the store trying to get somewhere
If you could take my worst words anywhere, it's now

I know you can see me (x 10)

Alright...

In my dirty basement you were so pristine Standing up drinking out the side of the can
And I wanna take you home with me every single day
To show you (repeat line and fade)
