Do we really fall so far?
You were there when my time came.
I've had it, I broke down.
You've been throwing your clothes all over.
And in the back of my mind, babe,
Don't I know that it's all right?
Well that's the big question now,
I know we're thinkin it over.
Oh, I know

Do we really fall so hard?
I was there when your time came,
Well and you'll never live that down
We've been draggin your name all over
And in the back of my mind, babe,
Don't I know that it's over?
Well that's the big question, dear.
I know we're thinking it all over,
over, oh.
You know.
Oh,
I know.

You did it better,
I did the rest.
What's wrong with that?
I had to set it up, and then the mess,
Well that's trying, trying.

Can't tell you now.
I'll tell you later.
What's wrong with you?
I'll see you later
Oh, nevermind.
I'll see you sometime, sometime.
