Give in to me, now I want you
I know the past comes back to haunt you
There are satellites in heaven
Watching everything you do

This is a battle that you're losing
And life was never more confusing
Now you're looking for a way out
Of your accidental life

But now your life is on the line, is on the line
You can stay inside, you can stay inside
But you're out of time, you're out of time

You can't reason in your condition
And now you see life as a mission
Maybe I know what you're missing
Tell me what you're going through

All your problems are distractions
Still waiting for the main attraction
Now you're looking for a way out
Of your accidental life

But now your life is on the line, is on the line
You can stay inside, you can stay inside
But you're out of time, you're out of time
But now your life is on the line, is on the line
You can stay inside, you can stay inside
But you're out of time, you're out of time
