sitting down at a table
i hear my belly roar
mom says, we're not in a stable but my belly rumbles once more

so then
i look at my plate
i think
what is at stake
my hunger
oh for goodness sake
oh will you
let me eat what u baked!!!

i grab my fork
i grasp, my knife
i stare, from the cake to pork and then think, about that piggys life

so then
i look at my plate
i think
what is at stake
my hunger
oh for goodness sake
oh will you
let me eat what u baked!!!

i look at my plate
i think
what is at stake
my hunger
oh for goodness sake
oh will you
let me eat what u baked!!!
