"Prettier Than Me"

My dreams are prettier than me
If I close my eyes, this is what I see
You are never there, And you'll never see
Nevermind the truth
Nevermind you'll always be the same

Lying all the time, do you ever sleep wake up feeling fine, you don't even care
I can never be prettier for you
I'm only ever prettier for me

Nevermind the truth you'll never see
Nevermind you mean nothing to me
Nevermind I have no place to go
Nevermind you'll never ever know

My dreams are flying through my head
When I go to sleep, will I wake up dead
But I will forget, and I'll never be Prettier for you
I'm only ever prettier for me

Nevermind the truth you always say,
Nevermind the dreams that went away
Nevermind I have no place to go
Nevermind you'll never ever know

Nevermind the truth you'll never see
Nevermind you mean nothing to me
Nevermind I have no place to go

You'll never know, you'll never know
You'll never know
