Dear morning sun
I beg to you
Shine over me
I need you to
My shadow's gone
I'm on my own

My finger's cold
The air is thin
Can't feel my toes
I've never been
This far away
From you, my friend
I need you here

I'll do anything
For the soothing light
Your gentle touch
A piece of mind
I'll do anything
I'll go anywhere
Above and below

Surrounded by the snow
By the snow
On my own
Wanna know
What's hidden beyond the horizon
I'm alone
Surrounded by the snow, oh, oh, oh
Surrounded by the snow

Dear, winter cold
Please leave me now
I've had enough
Of your frozen clouds
My glow is gone
I'm on my own

I'll do anything
For the soothing light

Your gentle touch
A piece of mind
I'll do anything
I'll go anywhere

Surrounded by the snow
By the snow
On my own
Wanna know
What's hidden beyond the horizon
I'm alone
Surrounded by the snow, oh, oh, oh
Surrounded by the snow

I wanna let you know
You have to go
Come spring, come summer, come sun
Goodbye, Mr Cold
I'm begging you to go

Surrounded by the snow
By the snow
On my own
Wanna know
What's hidden beyond the horizon
I'm alone
Surrounded by the snow, oh, oh, oh
By the snow, oh, oh, oh

Blinding white's all I see
Sinking deeper down
Trying to keep my sight towards the sky

Surrounded by the snow
