You wear that superstar status on your shoulder
Don't worry I won't lean on you when I get cold yeah
Sell a million copies and I'll buy back your love
Tell everyone I hate you and I'll blame the above
Love, you're breakin' me
Oh love, you're shakin' me
From the car to the front door
I'm left empty in between
You wear that chip like it makes up your wardrobe
Don't worry I won't tell anyone you're so bad
Sell a million copies and I'll buy back your love
Tell everyone I hate you and I'll blame the above
Love, you're breakin' me
Oh love, you're shakin' me
Oh, from the car to the front door
I'm left empty in between
Oh love, you're breakin' me
Oh love, you're shakin' me
Oh, from the car to the front door
I'm left empty in between
