Showers pounding out a new beat I trade my old shoes for new feet I grab a new seat I don't like the one I've got the fabrics wearing through and it's wearing me out you're wearing me down

Watch your baseball games and low budget telethons ain't like watching you yourself when you yourself is on got time to wonder to waste and to whine but when it comes to you it seems like I just can't find the time

So watch your head and then watch the ground it's a silly time to learn to swim when you start to drown
it's a silly time to learn to swim on the way down

If I gave you my number would it still be the same if I, if I saved you from drowning promise me you'll never go away oh promise me you'll always stay

Closed down the last local zoo I'm gonna win the endless war over who kills the last koala bear and who in death will love him more and I he grabs me by the hand drags me to the shore and says maybe you don't love me but you'll grow to love me even more and I well I'm not surprised
