we're outside, it's seek and it's hide
we don't have normal lives (we don't have normal lives) we survive till (...) arrive
could it be somehow you found me
a small star, a daydream bizarre we don't have normal lives

I wouldn't have it any other way, any other way I break the habit, another sunny day, another sunny day
yeah, you were born for me (you were born for me) yeah, you were meant for me line crossed, we're found and we're lost

the old song, they're singing along
we make fun till the morning's begun
we hold tight, another strange flight
we don't have normal lives

why break the habit, disintegrated to grey, disintegrate
to grey

no one understands why we are hand in hand the world is our world people look away, but we are here to stay
the world is our world
it happens naturally, it all makes sense to me the world is your world what's normal anyway, well who are they to say
the world is your world
your world (2x)

to grey
yeah, you were meant for me
