Always been trying to get reached all the time but I'm not
Into this thing with the hugging in mingling spots
Always been scared to be rude or show bad attitude Trying to be kind for my own peace of mind, is that good?

What can I do to let you in?
I've been living in doubt at least for a year
How can I show I want you here?
I have never been good at keeping people near Keeping people near

Let's do something out of the ordinary
Let's do it good and do it now
Doors are open for us to storm them all
Without a care of what's inside
I'm gonna meet you out tonight

Always been thinking with the mad parties in Company of more than ten or at least in my dreams Always been troubled with people they're ugly within The strength in my heart them have taken it out part by part

What can I do to let you in
I've been living in doubt at least for a year
How can I show I want you here
I have never been good at keeping people near Keeping people near

Let's do something out of the ordinary
Let's do it good and do it now
Doors are open for us to storm them all
Without a care of what's inside

Let's do something out of the ordinary
Let's do it good and do it now
Doors are open for us to storm them all
Without a care of what's inside

I'm gonna meet you out tonight
I'm gonna meet you out tonight
I'm gonna meet you out tonight
