"Before I Die"

Set me free,
Let me be who and what I am,
Why can't you see?
You never seem to understand,
This pain I feel,
Which is real as your ignorance,
Question fate as I await deliverance.

Like a fantastic fork,
In bloody meat,
Don't give me love I wanna drown in your deep divide.

Tumbleweed sew the seed in this ghost town,
You never know what you'll see when the sun goes down,
I saw her last in a dream she seems to astound,
Heard of her first third verse (216) hands bound.

Taken from me in my mind,
Empty without it inside,
Starving I am the deprived,
Just want it once...
Desires strong,
Resistance is weak,
It's hard to win when you've got so many mouths to feed,

Set me free,
Let me be who and what I am,
Why can't you see?
You never seem to understand,
This pain I feel,
Is as real as your ignorance,
Question fate as I await deliverance.

I could die for all of my sins,
No not for all that I have never had.
This life's a fight for fulfillment,
Inside a war of my own,
Hindsight,
Look back with resentment,

Taken as I find myself all alone...

All alone...

Taken from me.
