"The Fallen"

Indivisable invincible
And we are not amused

Underneath it all invisible
Add one and one to lose

Fools and criminals far from minimal
Yet both have earned their due

Irresistable who picks your peace

For you
Its far to hard to choose
We know what you're going thru
We are the fallen we cease to belong
Life leads us all here all along
We are what's true we all live on

Feast on forgiveness
And feed us the latest in doom

Come walk with me
Thru our world in ruin

And see if you're amused
